

Event terms and conditions

The following event terms and conditions apply to professional development events organised by the Australasian Fire and Emergency Service Authorities Council Limited (AFAC), including events organised by AFAC when operating under its associated trading names (including, for example, Australian Institute for Disaster Resilience). AFAC (including its associated trading names) are referred to in these Terms as “event host”.

These terms and conditions do not apply to the AFAC powered by INTERSCHUTZ conference, including the Australian Disaster Resilience Conference (“Conference”). The terms and conditions applicable to the Conference can be found here.
